Drawings

INFORMATION ON HOW TO EFFECT DRAWING CHANGES

Replacement Drawing Sheets

Drawing changes must be made by presenting replacement sheets which incorporate the desired changes and which comply with 37 CFR 1.84. An explanation of the changes made must be presented either in the drawing amendments section, or remarks, section of the amendment paper. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). A replacement sheet must include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of the amended drawing(s) must not be labeled as "amended." If the changes to the drawing figure(s) are not accepted by the examiner, applicant will be notified of any required corrective action in the next Office action. No further drawing submission will be required, unless applicant is notified.

Identifying indicia, if provided, should include the title of the invention, inventor's name, and application number, or docket number (if any) if an application number has not been assigned to the application. If this information is provided, it must be placed on the front of each sheet and centered within the top margin.

Annotated Drawing Sheets

A marked-up copy of any amended drawing figure, including annotations indicating the changes made, may be submitted or required by the examiner. The annotated drawing sheet(s) must be clearly labeled as "Annotated Sheet" and must be presented in the amendment or remarks section that explains the change(s) to the drawings.

Timing of Corrections

Applicant is required to submit acceptable corrected drawings within the time set in the Office action. See 37 CFR 1.85(a). Failure to take corrective action within the set period will result in ABANDONMENT of the application.

If corrected drawings are required in a Notice of Allowability (PTOL-37), the new drawings MUST be filed within the THREE MONTH shortened statutory period set for reply in the "Notice of Allowability." Extensions of time may NOT be obtained under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136 for filing the corrected drawings after the mailing of a Notice of Allowability.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Claims 1 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 6, the terminology "predetermined" is being deemed vague and indefinite. In claim 13, line 32, the terminology "predetermined" is being deemed vague and indefinite.

A claim is indefinite where it specifies "predetermined" temperatures, etc., when "Predetermined" according to applicant's (or applicants') definition, merely means determined before hand. See Seagrams & Sons Inc., vs Mattell, 84 U.S.P.Q. 180. Therefore, the claim(s) is/are unpatentable under 35 U.S.P.Q. 112 second paragraph.

The use of "predetermined" reads on a nebulous mental step conducted prior to the manipulative steps of the claimed invention, hence rendering the present process claims unclear in meaning and scope. If applicant wishes to patent detailed controls over the recited process, they must be positively recited.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

4. Claims 1-6 and 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable in view of Cope.

Cope teaches an automated crystal pulling system utilizes a digital computer to control a Czochralski crystal puller. Crystal pull rate, crystal spin rate, crucible lift rate and crucible spin rate are monitored with tachometers, and the monitored signals are applied to controllers to control the respective motors and provide independent closed control loops, with each controller having a set point signal input from the computer. A sensor detects the output level of the radio frequency generator (induction heater) and applies a signal to a generator controller having a set point input from the computer, providing closed loop temperature control. A temperature control algorithm receives and input from a melt temperature sensor and calculator the set point to the generator controller. A diameter control algorithm receives an input from a crystal diameter sensor and calculates the set point to the crystal pull motor controller to provide a constant melt level. An adaptive control algorithm adjusts melt temperature, via the temperature control algorithm, as required to maintain average pull rate within imposed limits.

The difference being that Cope does not teach independent melt control.

Azad teaches a Czochralski apparatus wherein a bottom heater and a side heater are independently controlled. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify and optimize the apparatus teachings, as taught by Cope, with the apparatus teachings of Azad in order to ensure proper orientation. The motivation being able to have a better enhanced crystal growing apparatus.

Expected beneficial results are evidence of obviousness, just as unexpected beneficial results are evidence of unobviousness. In re Novak 16 USPQ 2d 2041 (Fed. Cir., BPAI 1989); In re Hoffman 194 USPQ 126 (CCPA 1977); In re Skoll 187 USPQ 481 (CCPA 1975); In re Skoner 186 USPQ 80 (CCPA 1975); In re Garshon 152 USPQ 602 (CCPA 1967).

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTOL-892
